Dear s 22(a)(ii) [and Rainbow Regulators and hello to s 22(a)(ii) at Austrac]

Just an update – we had a Rainbow Regulator telephone conference on 7 May 2020 covering:

1. How are our networks coping with WFH
2. What was our AWEI results
3. What's next / what are we doing
4. Covid-19 impacts?

One take away was that we wanted to organise a Pride in Diversity Rainbow Regulators session which APRA thinks could specifically be an ally based webinar

(how to be an ally, how to be an ally working remotely, what allies need to do more of etc). We were thinking

1. A sixty to ninety minute session.
2. Would be hosted by Pride in Diversity on MS Teams or Zoom etc
3. Have interstate presenters from Pride in Diversity (so not Sydney centric)
4. Would be advertised by the Rainbow Regulators to their ally and supporters network.

s 22(a)(ii) do you think this would be possible in say August or September this year? Not sure what dates might work in with other regulator timetables but being August it could feed into Wear it Purple thinking as well (how allies support Wear it Purple etc).

Hi s 22(a)(ii),

Its great to see your excitement!

The Rainbow Regulators is not a formal gathering as such, its more of a think-tank/support network between the different regulators. As such, we don't have any formal documentation or terms of reference.

However, some of the main purposes of the group are:

- To establish LGBTIQ+ connections across agencies (e.g. social and networking events)
- Pool resources and efforts to jointly-participate in LGBTIQ+ community events (e.g. Fair Day and MG Parade)
- Share ideas, lessons learnt and opportunities for development – including training, education and celebrations of days of significance.

Hope that helps, if you'd like to discuss anything further feel free to give me a call.

Hi all,

Thank you for joining us today on the monthly Rainbow Regulators call.

A big welcome to our new members from AUSTRAC – s 22(a)(ii).

This meeting focused primarily on s 22(a)(ii) proposal for the RRs to host a webinar to celebrate Wear It Purple Day on August 28.

All in attendance were very supportive of the idea and were eager to be a part of the planning process. I have outlined a summary of the discussion below:

- s 22(a)(ii) has agreed to contact Pride in Diversity to assist with planning this event.
- The kick-off meeting will likely be held next week (please email s 22(a)(ii) if you want to be involved).
- The webinar will most likely be open to all employees at our agencies.
- ASIC will investigate product licenses for videoconferencing in order to host the webinar.
- Content, logistics and speakers will be discussed at the planning meeting next week.

We also agreed that if this event is successful we will look at planning additional events later in the year, the next focus will likely be on intersectionality.

Our next meeting is scheduled for Thursday 9 July at 3pm. However, I would like to propose a reschedule as this clashes with ASIC's internal Diversity Council quarterly meeting.

How is everyone placed to move the meeting to 3.30pm-4.30pm on the same day?

For Official Use Only

Dear s 22(a)(ii)

We had a Rainbow Regulator session this week and wanted to move forward with the Allies + Supporters Webinar for Rainbow Regulator staff.

The intent was to work with Pride in Diversity and the Rainbow Regulators to land on:

1. Content for the session addressing the state of inclusion on the workplace (and the Federal Public Sector).
2. Content for the session addressing allies and supporter engagement, including additional challenges where we are partially or fully working remotely.

Beyond the content we wanted to land on:

1. Enrolment mechanism (e.g. Eventbrite), ticketing and managing attendees and invitations
2. Artwork and branding via PowerPoints etc
3. Speakers and contributors, within Pride in Diversity and elsewhere if desired.

The event would be hosted by Pride in Diversity but be sponsored by:

ACCC, Austrac, APRA, ASIC and RBA pride and employee resource group networks.

We would be looking for organisation support for the exercise from within Pride in Diversity if possible. If necessary APRA would be willing to commit some of its 6 hours of annual consulting work by Pride in Diversity to the exercise if that assists resource wise (other Rainbow Regulators may be able to do the same but we have not canvased that amongst ourselves).

Next Steps

Representatives from the Rainbow Regulators would like to undertake a planning session for this the week after next if possible. This involves volunteers from the agencies (cc'd above).

We are very keen on this exercise and are looking forward to working with you and others from Pride in Diversity on the exercise.

Please let us know if you can be the point person for this.

I suggest a meeting on 3 July 2020 at say midday?

Can Pride in Diversity do the artwork for the invitations to go out as well, that would include reference to the Zoom details? Hopefully you have someone that can craft something up? The invitation could include Pride in Diversity logos and inclusion of Rainbow Regulator motifs from the agencies (I believe s 22(a)(ii) from APRA has sent you previously the APRA logo in hi-res, not sure what you have from ASIC, ACCC, RBA and APRA.

It could also name the speakers from Pride in Diversity (including you) plus the nominated agency representatives noting that RBA and AUSTRAC are in process of landing their representatives as at Friday.

Thanks so much.

Some points sorry I should have mentioned this before

1. The zoom link isn't a registration function so this may confuse. I would say in the flyer that you click the link to join at the time rather than register for the event.
2. There needs to be a few words about the session including how it is structured, the aim, a reference to the state of inclusion in public sector agencies. There needs to be reference to the session being designed to support and encourage allies, including a reference to working remotely in the Covid-19 environment (we must mention Covid-19 in the flyer to come across as relevant).
3. There should be pics of the two Pride in Diversity trainers to give it a personal feel.
4. The refence to representatives from the regulators should state why they are at the event and what they will do.
5. Also at APRA we refer to LGTBIQ to state intersex so this could go in to the acronym?

I love the colour work.

I will stand by for what others might say as well.

Shame the Pride in Diversity creatives are so under the pump I was really hoping to leverage off that resource.

Hi folks,

I agree, I like option 1 as well.

I hope you don't mind, but I made some tweaks to the formatting and logos, and I added some text to make the graphic more connected to the details beneath. I also added the word "empowered" to the title, as we discussed in the last working group. Just suggestions, so happy for any further edits or comments!

Hi all,

I have updated the agenda/run sheet for the event based on our discussion today (see below).

[REDACTED], I don't know the name of your PID co-presenter (or if you will have one), could you fill that in please?

Item	Time	Topic	Presenter	Comments
1	12.30pm (5mins)	Welcome <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Acknowledgement of Country Overview of event – organised by RR, agenda items Housekeeping 	[REDACTED] (ASIC)

My suggestions for the wording on the poster are:

Celebrate the 10th anniversary of Wear it Purple Day with the Rainbow Regulators as we learn about the current state of LGBTIQ inclusion in the Federal Public Service and how to be an effective ally during COVID-19.
 We will also have the chance to hear from executive sponsors and allies from ASIC, ACCC, APRA, AUSTRAC and the RBA as they participate in a live Q&A panel.

I don't think APRA is part of the APS either, from memory (?)

That said, it would make sense for you to include RBA with Federal Government departments and agencies when looking at the AWEI results.

Hi all,

I had some edits on the text. I wanted to remove the APS reference because not all of our organisations are part of the APS. There are a few other suggestions marked up.

Join the Rainbow Regulators and Pride in Diversity as we explore the state of LGBTIQ inclusion ~~in the APS~~ in public sector organisations and how to be an active and empowered LGBTIQ Ally, especially during the COVID-19 pandemic during and after the pandemic.

We will also hear from senior leaders from the Rainbow Regulator organisations in a Q&A panel discussion on the why they are allies and how they are contributing to an inclusive workplace culture.

Thanks for this.

We still use an “l” in LGBTIQ at APRA but if others have dropped it we can leave out.

I think it needs a sentence about the invitees from the regulators saying “A panel session with senior leaders from the Rainbow Regulator organisations as to why they’re LGBTIQ champions and how they’ve moved the dial on LGBTIQ inclusion in their organisations and what lessons they can share with us”.

I can't make this meeting tomorrow but in terms of going forward it would be good to get a "run sheet" that covers the event for participants (timing of each section and content – based on what s 22(a)(ii) sent around by email). I can give this to the APRA guest.

Specifically whether the guest speakers have their own Zoom access details (not sure if they have separate log-ins to audience members)? I could also give this to the APRA guest.

All our speakers can use their own access details, which are sent to them on registering. By making them co-presenters and making sure that they have their cameras on, they remain at the top of the Brady Bunch screen of faces.

Hi all

I'm not able to make this afternoon's meeting, and s 22(a)(ii) is on leave today, so we would appreciate if you could send through a quick email afterwards if there's anything you need us to action?

A quick update from the ACCC/AER:

- s 22(a)(ii) (our Pride Network champion) sent the invite to all staff on Tuesday this week
- Is it possible to check registration numbers from each agency at the end of each week? That way we can target further internal comms to encourage attendance.

We're planning to have an internal ACCC/AER Wear it Purple Day Event earlier in the week, and are in the process of finalising the details of this.

Thanks – and hope you are all doing well.

Please note the following:

- During the welcome I will cover some basic housekeeping and Zoom etiquette, this will include:
 - Participant microphones should be muted at all times, video is optional (I'm hoping PiD can disable everyone's microphones except for those speaking/presenting)
 - Any questions throughout the event should be sent through the chat function directly to me (I will then field these to the presenter)
- I have noted that the Live Q&A will be subject to timing in case the pre-set question discussion is particularly engaging

Here are some instructions on how to enable a virtual background – skip to the section titled “Using a virtual background” and read the instructions relevant to your operating system/device.

In your briefings with your speakers, please ask them to join the Zoom at least 15 minutes early to ensure microphones/cameras are all in working order.

Can't wait to see everyone, please let me know if you have any questions.

Sorry I wasn't able to make it today – I've been in meetings all day!

s 22(a)(ii) has just confirmed with me (a second time) that he has registered and he has the zoom details in his calendar. Not sure why he's not showing up in your list?

Also, can I ask where the group got to on questions for the panel? I would like to brief s 22(a)(ii) early next week on the sorts of questions that are likely to come up.

We'll have a last push next week to get some more registrations from RBA.

Importance: High

Hi everyone,

After some consideration we have made the decision to substitute one of the questions for the Q&A segment.

Apologies if this causes any confusion or additional work for anyone in their briefing with their panel member.

However, we believe the new question will allow for more discussion/participation by the panel members.

The question:

Are we able to provide support to LGBTIQ youth (such as through mentoring) without it conflicting with our regulatory roles?

Will be replaced with:

Do agencies have a role in supporting the LGBTIQ community broadly (i.e. beyond the workplace)? How does your agency do this?

I have attached the updated run sheet with the questions included.

If you have any questions/concerns, please let me know.

See you all Friday!

Kind regards,

Someone more "woke" from the panellists may have a go at answering this but it brings out a valid point (we don't have people in leadership that have these identities, especially in financial sector regulators).

s 22(a)(ii): Is there going to be a combined list of all the questions that I can send to my panellist? This would help her be prepared.

Hi All,

We received this question yesterday. It's a good one but it might be complex to answer.

"We have seen strides in the public discourse for Gay, Lesbian and Bisexual folks, particularly those who are white. How do we prioritise culturally safe workspaces for those among us who are still absent in representation, absent in narratives, absent in policies and absent in leadership? That is transgender and gender expansive people, queer people of colour, queer

First Nations folks and others who hold intersectional identities.”

Hi all,

Our Corporate Affairs team have proposed publishing a LinkedIn post to recognise WiPD and the event we are hosting.

What are your thoughts on asking the panellists to stay on the call after the event finishes so that we can take this photo? Because the call is not set up as a webinar it will be much easier to get the panellists on one screen for the photo once the event is over.

If everyone is on board, there's just one piece of paperwork ASIC need in order to publish the photo and that is our standard media release form. If you could pass this onto your panellist and get it back to me before Friday, that would be very much appreciated.

So there were 529 attendees. There were 27 who joined by phone, so I am unable to allocate them.

Otherwise:

- ACCC – 66
- APRA – 190
- ASIC – 163
- AUSTRAC – 27
- RBA – 54

I think that this is a wonderful attendance and shows that people are interested and supportive of LGBTQ inclusion in the workplace.

Hi All,

Unfortunately, s 22(a)(ii) and I are both going to be on leave Thursday 10 September. Our fellow ACCC Pride Network coordinators, s 22(a)(ii) (from Tas) and s 22(a)(ii) (from Vic) will be joining in our stead. I have copied them both here and would be grateful if the agenda can be shared with them when available.

Many thanks,

Thanks s 22(a)(ii),

MS Teams is also the better option for the ACCC, it's the only video conferencing software we are meant to use on our work computers.

I think it would be great to invite s 22(a)(ii) from PiD going forward.

Unfortunately, I'm on leave next Tuesday so will be an apology to the meeting.

Many thanks

Thanks s 22(a)(ii) APRA has no issue with using Teams as it is our go-forward default communication program.

I think it would be good to include PiD in the regular attendances, this should also increase the strategic support that PiD offers us in the future as we're all sponsoring organisations.

Subject: Rainbow Regulators Monthly Meeting - call for agenda items [SEC=OFFICIAL]

Hi everyone,

Our next meeting is scheduled for Thursday 10 September at 3pm.

Could you please provide me with any agenda items by COB Tuesday 8 September?

A few other items for email consultations:

- Do we want to invite s 22(a)(ii) (PiD) as an optional attendee going forward? I'm hoping he can join us next week to talk about our next event on intersectionality.
- ASIC's videoconferencing technology will be changing to MS Teams in the near future. Does anyone have any issues with being able to use this platform for our meetings going forward? If not, I will be changing the platform starting with next week's meeting.

Kind regards,

Hi all,

As mentioned on the call, below is our list of resources for transgender day of remembrance, This forms the second half of our overall intranet article today. Hope it assists in some way for your organisations.

Best,

s 22(a)(ii)

Show solidarity

Transgender Awareness Day is a good time to remember the ways we can show our support throughout the year.

Here are some things you can do:

- be considered about your language and how you refer to transgender people, including pronouns (ACON has some handy tips)
- read the ACCC/AER's Guidelines for gender transition in the workplace
- attended the LGBTIQ awareness training on 18 November, if you haven't already
- join the Pride Network to help foster a culture of inclusion, regardless of sexual orientation or gender identity
- engage with stories about being transgender or a gender diverse person.

A few great shows and documentaries you can watch include Episode 4, Season 1 of You Can't Ask That and Transblack on ABC iView; Twiz and Tuck, Being Transgender, Growing Up Trans and Episode 15, Season 2019 of Insight on SBS On Demand

In 2015 the Human Rights Commission published a report, Resilient Individuals: sexual orientation, gender identity and intersex status.

The report identified a number of significant barriers that trans and gender diverse people face in Australia including access to health care and legal recognition in official identification documents.

The Human Rights Commission's own research and the research of others has also identified that trans and gender diverse people report disproportionately high rates of violence, harassment, bullying and exclusion related to their identity. Rates are particularly high for trans and gender diverse young people. For example, in the 2014 report, From Blues to Rainbows: Mental health and wellbeing of gender diverse and transgender young people in Australia, 66% of survey participants reported that they had experienced verbal abuse on the basis of their gender identity and 21% reported that they had experienced physical abuse on the same basis.

It is important that we all do our part to work towards creating a kinder and more respectful community. The ACCC/AER is committed to a diverse and inclusive workplace and all employees are responsible for upholding the APS Values and Code of Conduct, which include respecting all people.

We recognise how people choose to express their gender is very personal and although not everyone who identifies as transgender will choose to transition, as part of our commitment to creating a diverse and inclusive workplace, the ACCC/AER has Guidelines for gender transition in the workplace. The guidelines are to help increase understanding of gender diversity and help managers and employees to understand relevant roles and responsibilities in supporting positive workplace transitions. These guidelines support the Australian Government Guidelines on the recognition of sex and gender.

Happy Friday everyone!

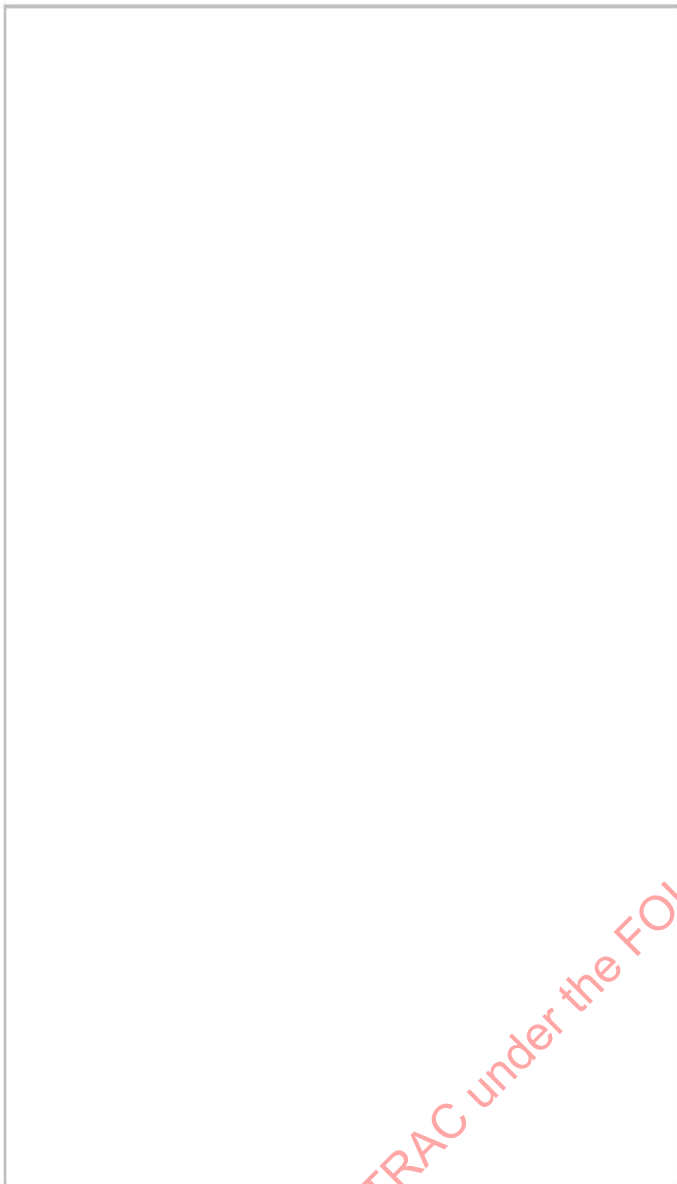

I know that this might be a little last minute but we are holding a webinar in just over a week to coincide with IDHOBIT and GAAD. We have a great speaker coming in to present and answer questions in the session so if you are interested please register. I've included a small bio on Jackie Leach Scully who is our speaker.

Jackie Leach Scully Biography

Jackie Leach Scully is Professor of Bioethics and Director of the Disability Innovation Institute at UNSW. With a background in biomedical science, she has specialised for many years in ethical issues in biomedicine and the life sciences, and particularly their relevance to people with disability. She is currently leading several projects looking at the uses of genetic information in prenatal testing and care, and the impact of automated decision-making on disability. She is also writing on the patient experience in organ transplantation. Jackie is a Fellow of the Academy of Social Sciences and of the Royal Society of Arts in the UK, and of the Hastings Center in New York, and in 2020 was named as one of Australia's Outstanding 50 LGBTI+ Leaders.

Thanks s 22(a)(ii).

While on the topic of collaboration, the ACCC has been contacted by s 22(a)(ii) from the Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet about APS Pride – an APS wide Community of Practice for LGBTQIA+ networks. Myself and a couple of others from the ACCC have joined the GovTeams group for it – I haven't had the time to explore it in detail yet but I have attached their draft Terms of Reference. s 22(a)(ii) is interested in having others from the Rainbow Regulators group join, so if you're interested please either contact him on the details below, or let me know if you are comfortable for me to provide your email address to s 22(a)(ii) so that he can reach out.

Hi team!

At last month's meeting I discussed the interest from Treasury and the ATO in joining our merry band of pride promoters.

From memory, the general consensus was in favour of including both entities, however, there were concerns over how 'big' the group might be getting.

While I share these concerns, and don't want to detract from our effectiveness as a group, I think the addition of these two entities in particular will be very advantageous for us, reasons including:

- Treasury – a number of our member agencies are part of the Treasury portfolio and having their support in driving some of our more strategic goals (i.e. Gender Affirmation leave as part of APSC policy) would carry substantial weight.
- ATO – AWEI Gold Tier employer, significantly resourced in the D&I/LGBTIQ+ space and very successful in driving LGBTIQ+ inclusion. Likely to bring a lot of new/different ideas that each of us could benefit from.

In turn, there are areas where these entities are lacking that some of our current members are well advanced in, so there is mutual benefit in this partnership.

If you have any concerns with me inviting these entities to our next meeting, please email me by COB Monday 28 June.

OFFICIAL

Hi Rainbow Regulator colleagues!!

I thought I'd use this email chain to just do a quick follow up on one of the discussion items from the last rainbow regulators meetings.

Pride at Treasury are very keen to just get some clarity on exactly the approach that ASIC, RBA, ATO, ACCC, AEC and Austrac have taken in terms of their gender affirmation policies. We'd be really keen to know if your agencies:

1. Have a big "p" policy document that is on equal footing to other policies, such as your leave policy, domestic violence policy and harassment policy.
 - a. ASIC – we note you have kindly shared your big "p" policy we us – thankyou!
2. Is miscellaneous leave allowed to be used under the gender affirmation policy for matters relating to gender affirmation?
 - a. If so, what kinds of things can a person take misc leave for?

At this stage we are attempting to meet our HR areas concerns that APS agencies should not have a big "P" policy as there is currently no APSC position on gender affirmation and further a big P is only to provide advice to employees about the negotiated employment terms and conditions. HR also noted the gender affirmation initiative is a really important one, but does not stem from new legislation or industrial relations negotiations (as yet) and formal entitlements to support gender affirmation are not yet reflected in broader employment law. There are also concerns about when and where miscellaneous leave can be used.

It would assist us in meeting our HR areas concerns if we could acknowledge the great work of portfolio and other APS agencies – and provide examples of where policies do already exist and/or where miscellaneous leave is available.

If you'd like to discuss, please give me a call. Number below.

Best regards,

Good morning all,

- s 22(a)(ii) at APRA has put his hand up to take on the role of lead/chair of the Rainbow Regulators. Is there anyone else that has also expressed an interest at this point?

s 22(a)(ii) is a s 22(a)(ii) at APRA in the s 22(a)(ii) has been a key member of the LGBTIQ+ network since it was formed 5 years ago, and is also a member of the SGLBA board. s 22(a)(ii)

I guess as a first step, has anyone else put there hand up for the role at this stage? If not, I will forward the invite for the next meeting to s 22(a)(ii) and we can discuss the way forward at the next meeting.

- Additionally, s 22(a)(ii) and I (Co-chairs of the LGBTIQ+ Network at APRA), have recently appointed s 22(a)(ii) as the new secretary to our Network and if s 22(a)(ii) becomes the new s 22(a)(ii), s 22(a)(ii) will attend the meetings also to support with minutes and meeting scheduling.

s 22(a)(ii) and s 22(a)(ii) are both included in the distribution list above.

Minutes of the Rainbow Regulators

Attendees:	APRA – s 22(a)(ii) (Chair), s 22(a)(ii) s 22(a)(ii) (Secretary) ASIC – s 22(a)(ii) RBA – s 22(a)(ii) (TR) Treasury – s 22(a)(ii) ACCC – s 22(a)(ii) ACON – s 22(a)(ii) (CN)
Date:	11 November 2021
Location:	Microsoft Teams

Item 1 – Agency updates

- RBA published on its intranet a short publication for Pronoun Day which was well received. RBA agreed to share its publication (subject to internal approval).
- APRA is preparing for its World Aids Day event on 1 December 2021. APRA is happy for the event invite to be shared amongst each agency's LGBTIQ+ network.
- ACCC prepared a series of articles for pride history month and shared it via email amongst its internal network. The articles were well received.
- Treasury is preparing a new inclusion and diversity strategy for 22 – 24. Treasury is also planning an internal event next Monday to celebrate the anniversary of its pride network.
- ASIC pride members are talking to various teams across ASIC about their lived experiences to increase visibility and awareness. ASIC is also finalising its decision about the Freedom of Information request relating to its Pride network.
- ACON has prepared talking points about the Freedom of Information request for the executives at each agency if they need them. The employee survey is now live and open until February 2022. ACON has the following events upcoming:
 - Pride and Practice conference (tickets on sale until the Friday before it is live);
 - Roundtables; and
 - Pride March on 27 November in WA (reach out to CN for further information).

Item 2 – Communication and information sharing

- Exploring whether to use GovTeams for communication and information sharing.
- Each agency needs to ensure that there are no impediments to using GovTeams before we make a decision.

Item 3 – 2021 AWEI benchmarking data

- 2021 AWEI benchmarking data is available and will be circulated to the Rainbow Regulators following the meeting.

Action items open as at 11 November 2021

Dear All

As discussed during previous meetings, we would like to set up a GovTEAMS for the Rainbow Regulators to share information and documents. Could one person from each agency please confirm by return email to s 22(a)(ii) by COB Thursday 17 February whether:

- Your organisation is able to use GovTEAMS (www.govteams.gov.au) for the purpose of sharing information/documents across the Rainbow Regulators; and
- You have a GovTEAMS account or will make an account prior to our March meeting.

Please reach out to s 22(a)(ii) or I if you have any question or concerns about GovTEAMS.

Hi Everyone

I have been invited to be the new Secretary to this group, and am honoured and excited by the opportunity.

My role within APRA is EA to Steve Matthews, who is the executive sponsor to the LGBTIQ+ stream.

I have previously attended and organised catering for Rainbow Regulator events held at APRA so may have already met some of you in person and look forward to meeting you all virtually later this week.

Can you please send through any Agenda items you have in preparation for the meeting this Thursday 10 March.

Kind regards

Greetings s 22(a)(ii) and all

I hope you are keeping well. Thanks for the agenda for tomorrow.

s 22(a)(ii) from the Australian Financial Security Authority expressed interest in being a part of the Rainbow Regulators. I note we have had some changes in the membership in the last year or so it might be a good opportunity to welcome a new member.

Grateful if we could consider this item as part of tomorrow's agenda.

Case for AFSA to become a member of the Rainbow Regulators

AFSA supports the sustainable flow of credit within the Australian economy, through our role in administering and regulating Australia's personal insolvency and personal property securities systems. Our work supporting these systems helps to protect consumers, and also provides formal options for people to deal with unmanageable levels of debt. We also act as trustee pursuant to court orders under the Proceeds of Crime legislation and administer the Confiscated Assets Accounts. Put simply, while we a small-medium sized agency, we are an important regulator operating within the broader financial system.

Our work involves close collaboration with ASIC in the regulation of insolvency practitioners which includes dealing with harms that impact both corporate and personal insolvency. We work closely with the AFP on proceeds of crime matters. AFSA is also a member of the Phoenix Taskforce.

In relation to our LGBTIQ+ network's activities, our aim is to:

- create a culture of inclusion and belonging in which all employees can bring their whole selves to work, including those who identify as lesbian, gay, bisexual, intersex, gender and/or sex diverse and queer, and are supported by members and allies who are actively live and promote the culture
- contribute to AFSA's ability to attract and retain engaged and motivated talent while openly drawing on the unique backgrounds, experiences and networks of LGBTIQ+ employees to increase brand awareness, loyalty and reputation
- develop employee understanding of the unique issues LGBTIQ+ people face so AFSA can effectively deliver services to all members of the Australian community.

s 22(a)(ii) is happy to share the AFSA network's charter and 2022-25 inclusion plan with the Rainbow Regulators if there is an opportunity to join the group.

Many thanks & regards s 22(a)(ii)

Good morning Rainbow Regulators,

As many of you will have seen, I have moved our next meeting from (Good) Friday to Thursday the 6th of April next week at 2pm ACDT (national times in linked agenda). Please accept the calendar invite if you haven't already. If you aren't able to attend, please open the Standing Agenda and pop your name in the 'Apologies': Rainbow Regulators Standing Agenda.docx

At our next meeting, I'd like to have a chat about the ACCC & AER's Pride Network structure (hopefully with and assistance) and take you through our Intranet page. I'd also love to hear about your agencies' Networks, what they look like and what they do.

Please add any other agenda items you'd like to discuss to the Standing Agenda.

Finally, if there are any updates to our Mailing List, please click the link to open the document at any time, make them and hit save. All RR documents are accessible via our SharePoint page.

Good afternoon Rainbow Regulators,

Thank you to all those who attended the session this afternoon, it was great to see you all again.

Please find attached the ACCC & AER Pride Network – LGBTQIA cheat sheet. This is something that I worked on quite a while ago, with the intention of making it an update to an existing Intranet Article, or a new one. It since (involuntarily) morphed into a standalone word doc, now placed on our Pride Network’s Intranet page (as shown today).

Please add any upcoming agency network events to our SharePoint page and any agenda items to our standing agenda.

s 22(a)(ii) if you could please send around those links to the Pride in Diversity training, that would be fantastic – will try to include that in our upcoming Newsletter and on our Intranet page.

Good morning Regulators,

Could a kind someone please send me a copy of the current agenda – it appears my GovTEAMS' Fort Knox security has once again proven too exceptional for me to access it.

A brand new Regulator will be joining us on Friday from Food Standards Australia New Zealand – he founded the ACCC and AER's Pride Network many moons ago and will hopefully have plenty of tales to share with us all.

See you soon.

Stay safe and well,

Hello Fellow Rainbow Regulators

Hope everyone is having a good week.

Some of you may be aware that AFSA activates twice a year – for AFSA's Pride month held in August, and in November for Trans Awareness Week. We celebrate our Pride month in August to align with Wear it Purple and the anniversary of our network. We usually don't do anything for international pride month as we like to give space to important First Nations events around that time.

We have started planning our Pride month, and this year our focus is on LGBTQ+ in the APS, supported by intersectionality. Last year, we focused on LGBTQ+ in the industries we regulate.

To kick off Pride Month on Tuesday 1 August, we are hoping to have an APS employee speak and share their experience throughout their APS career. Ideally, we are looking at around 20 mins of content and then time for questions. Position, age etc is not important. If we have a bit of interest, we may also explore doing a panel some time during the month (we aim to have an event in every week of August).

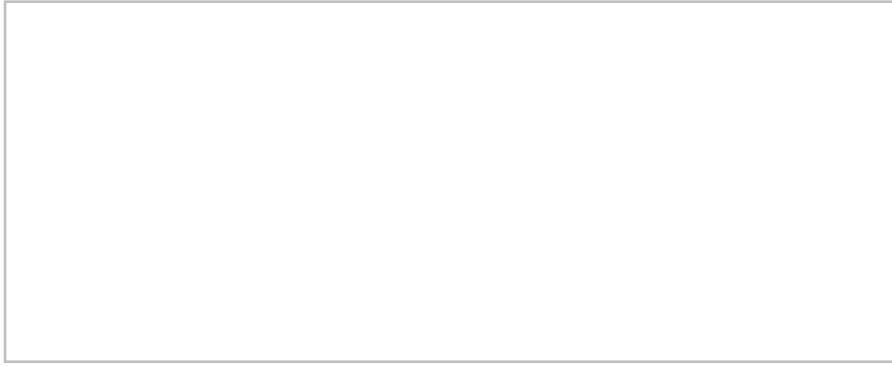

If you or someone you know has a story that should be heard, then please reach out.

I'm very happy to discuss too.

Look forward to hearing from you.

Cheers

Hi there,
I am handing over the chair of the RBA ERG to a new exec committee, and I realised that I haven't been to a Rainbow Regulators meeting in ages. What has happened to this forum? I found it very interesting to share information and find out what other agencies are doing in our space. I also thought we might be able to go for a joint float for Mardi Gras like back in the good old days of 2017!
Does anyone know anything? Thank you.

Regards,

Good afternoon AGD and Treasury!

I'm a member of AUSTRAC's Pride Network and the Rainbow Regulators network, and also in our strategic division, and I've been asked to ask around for any gender affirmation policies agencies might be willing to share.

Our Senior HR Specialist attended a Treasury Pride event recently and she was very impressed, so she was hoping to look at Treasury's policy for assistance with ours. And she was also hoping to check AGD's to try and keep things consistent.

If you're able to share your gender affirmation policies, we would very much appreciate it, and would be completely willing to lock it down within HR if needed.

Thanks for your time,

Dear Rainbow Regulators colleagues

Hope you are all keeping well.

In collaboration with our Parents and Carers Network, on 16 May 2024, ASIC's Rainbow Network is hosting a virtual event involving ASIC Commissioner Alan Kirkland and CEO of Rainbow Families, Ashley Scott. The event marks both National Families Week (which this year's theme is 'Celebrating Family Diversity and Connections') and the International Day Against Homophobia, Biphobia, Intersex Discrimination and Transphobia or IDAHOBIT.

It gives me great joy to be able to extend the invitation to the event to you and your LGBTQI+ networks.

Details of the event are below, including the Microsoft Teams link.

Any questions, including for the speakers on the day, please let me know.

Kind regards

s 22(a)(ii)

Dear colleagues,

Please join us to learn more about the experiences of LGBTQIA+-parented families, known as 'rainbow families', and the action we can all take to reduce the discrimination and disadvantage they may face.

To mark National Families Week (13-19 May 2024), ASIC Commissioner Alan Kirkland, the Sponsoring Commissioner of the Rainbow Network will join Ashley Scott, Executive Officer and one of the founders of Rainbow Families, to find out about what the organisation does and the rainbow families that they support.

Alan and Ashley are happy to answer any questions you might have. Please send your questions before or during the event to s 22(a)(ii) via Microsoft Teams – these will be asked anonymously unless requested otherwise.

We look forward to seeing you there.

About Rainbow Families

Rainbow Families is Australia's peak, not-for-profit organisation for LGBTQ+ parents and their children, supporting families in which one or more parents are lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender or queer. Rainbow Families provides a range of programs, events and resources to assist these families, educate the wider community, and advocate for inclusive policy and research.

About National Families Week

National Families Week (13-19 May 2024) is an opportunity to celebrate the vital role that families play in Australian society while recognising and embracing the unique circumstances, backgrounds, and dynamics that make each family special.
